Perfect Plan to Meet War Chest Quota

City to be Divided Into Districts with Canvassing Teams in Each

Officers of the Sierra Madre War Chest Committee are holding meetings to further plans for making the city's $6931 quota. They have decided upon William A. Kinney as chairman of the advance gift committee, whose work is one of the first and most important in the War Chest campaign. Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin, in charge of the canvassing, is planning to divide the city into districts with captains appointed in each, and they in turn to have their own block chairman responsible for the contacting of each house. This was the method that proved most successful last year.

The 1944 War Chest drive is being conducted by the Civic Club. Miss Ruth Miles, chairman of the drive last year, is also on the 1944 committee, with Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin acting as canvassing chairman, and Eleanor Edwards secretary and press chairman. The drive opens October 9.

One of the new causes recently added to the Chest is American Relief for Italy in those areas occupied by our troops. To care for these people in their hour of distress is not only a worthy expression of human sympathy but will go far toward restoring good will and aiding world peace.

—Eleanor Edwards, Press Chairman.

New Streamlined Nursing Course Available to a Few

Mrs. Augusta Coats gave a new streamlined course in basic home nursing here four days last week. Red Cross Supervisor Mrs. Mary Gray lectured, showing the latest methods. This is the first class Mrs. Coats has taught since she completed the Red Cross advanced course this month in Glendale.

Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Josephine Marr and Nina Lesher, chairman, will receive certificates. Those wishing to take the course, phone local Red Cross headquarters for registration. The class has to be limited to a small number.

Waste Paper Drive Continued Here Thru September

Announcement was made yesterday that the waste paper drive being conducted by Boy Scout Troop No. 2 is meeting with such success that the boys have agreed to continue their campaign throughout the month of September. Residents are asked to cooperate by leaving their bundles of accumulated newspapers, magazines and other waste paper at the Sierra Madre service stations, all of which have agreed to serve as receiving stations.

Scout Leaders are Boys Again as they Complete Study

The Scout leadership training course held each Tuesday for the past seven weeks, terminated with a "camp out" at Camp Huntington from Saturday evening until Sunday night. While the average weekly attendance at class meetings averaged better than 20, only six Scout leaders were able to attend the final course requirement of camping, which entitles them to certificates.

"We had a grand and most profitable time," agreed the sextet of campers, Larry Appleford, E. G. Osterman, Bert Noble, Harry Caskey, William Kinney and Mr. Haymaker.

Not only did these Scout leaders, in the role of Boy Scouts, pitch their bed rolls on rough bunks at camp, but arose early Sunday morning and prepared their outdoor breakfast. The day's program covered serious application to all manner of camp craft—culminating with an afternoon hike, designed to cover general camping experiences any Boy Scout is likely to encounter as he progresses. Efficient camp management was a prime objective of the day.

New 'A' Gas Books Being Issued Now

The local War Price and Rationing Board in Monrovia has begun to issue renewed "A" gas ration books by mail. Renewal applications may be obtained from service stations or local OPA boards. They should be mailed to the local board together with the back of the current "A" book which is headed "Certification of Bookholder," and the vehicle's tire inspection record. New books rather than delivered over the counter. The new book will provide the same monthly ration as before—eight gallons or approximately 120 miles a month. For each three-month period, however, there will be six coupons worth four gallons of gasoline each, instead of eight coupons worth three gallons each.

Detroit Publisher to Take Over the Sierra Madre News

Readers of the next issue of the Sierra Madre News will find a change in the masthead at the top of the editorial page where for 14 years and six months the name of L. R. Goshorn has appeared as editor and publisher. In its place the names of Clifford C. Ward and his wife, Ione, will appear as owners and publishers. The paper has been sold to them effective September 1.

Until recently the Wards owned and published the River Rouge Herald in Detroit. They have just sold the Legal Herald of the same locality and are on their way to Sierra Madre where they have wanted to live since they visited the city while in Southern California from Detroit in 1934. They have bought a home here on East Laurel ave. which is being prepared for their occupancy on arrival. Their interest in the community is believed to be a guarantee that newspaper people of their experience will give the city a creditable newspaper and the retiring publisher asks the citizens for their whole-hearted cooperation.

Registration Begins Sept. 5 at School

Registration of children entering Sierra Madre school for the first time will be conducted Tuesday, September 5, through Friday, September 8, in the office of the school at 141 W. Highland ave.

Children who will be five years of age on or before March 1, 1945, are eligible for entrance into kindergarten. Children who will be six years of age on or before March 1, 1945, are eligible for entrance into the first grade. Children entering from other school districts should submit transfers or report cards showing grade placement. When ages are verified by birth certificates, a record of the verification is made on the permanent record of the pupil. Such a verification might be of value in later years, as the school is often called upon to certify to birth dates.

Registration of all children entering Sierra Madre school for the first time should be completed before the opening of school on Monday, September 11.

Seventh and eighth grades will be continued at Sierra Madre school. The State Legislature at the extraordinary session in June, 1944, validated the continuance of seventh and eighth grade classes in elementary districts located in high school districts maintaining junior high schools.

While most sixth grade pupils in Sierra Madre choose to spend their seventh and eighth school years in the local school, they are allowed if they prefer, to attend a Pasadena junior high school. However, Supt. Korsemeier points out that if a local pupil goes to an outside school, Sierra Madre district is charged tuition. In 1942-43 the average daily attendance of junior high school pupils from Sierra Madre attending Pasadena junior high was 13.75 at a gross cost to Sierra Madre district for tuition of $1622.50, while in the year 1943-44 the average daily attendance from Sierra Madre to Pasadena junior high was 7.33, with a cost to Sierra Madre district for tuition of $921.38. However, Sierra Madre district is reimbursed $66 per pupil from the State, leaving the amount $59 per pupil which has to be raised by taxation in the district for each pupil going to school outside the district.

Condition in China Now to be Told

Chungking, China, will be the subject of an address Sunday morning at Bethany Church when Dr. Charles Roberts who has spent almost his entire life in China, will tell of modern conditions in that ravaged, unhappy country. Dr. Roberts arrived in New York in May, and has plane reservations to return to China at an early date. His wife and family are living in Glendale, since they were compelled to flee from China, although one son is in the service.

Another Local Girl Joins the WAVES

Miss Roberta Thew, daughter of H. A. Thew of 7 Windsor lane, headed her country's call. She joined up with the WAVES and is awaiting orders to report for duty.

Miss Thew was born and grew up in Sierra Madre, attending school here and in Pasadena. Except for a few years spent in Des Moines, Ia., with her mother, when she worked in a defense plant, she has been a home-town girl. She worked at the Lockheed airplane plant and later in a Pasadena drug store. Miss Thew expects to be sent to Hunter College, New York, for her training.

Fifty Donors Needed for Plasma Quota

First-Time Givers Among City's New Residents Counted On to Fill Gap

Fifty more registrations are needed to fill the Red Cross plasma quota for Sierra Madre. According to Mrs. May de Wright, acting chairman of the blood bank, all names of previous donors have been called and those lists are exhausted, so that the 50 more needed will have to be first-time givers.

Sierra Madre has never yet failed to make its plasma quota and now that the fighting is at its peak, there's every reason why it can not fail this time. Make your appointment with the Red Cross office today at CUster 5-6183. The plasma mobile unit will be here September 5 at the Woman's clubhouse from 8:40 a.m. until 2:40 p.m.

Plan for the post-war period for our fighting men. Bring them back for it by giving your blood today!

Volunteer helpers while the Red Cross unit is here will be Mrs. Alice Jones, Mrs. Catherine Dowling, Mrs. Rebecca Colligan, Mrs. Margaret McCullough, Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin, Mrs. Jean Kearney, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Amy Adams, Mrs. Billie Ward, Mrs. Ruth Blakeman, Mrs. Harriet Dodge, Mrs. Toyette Stoddard, Mrs. Beatrice Pratt, Mrs. Margaret Senour, Mrs. Lucille Groetsma, Mrs. Grace Lewis, Mrs. Mattie Spencer, Mrs. Milo Murray, Mrs. Helen Hutton, Mrs. Florence Peterson, Mrs. Marguerite Champlin and Miss Clara Sykes.

Canteen workers under direction of Mrs. Leona Woehler will be Mrs. Nina Lesher, Mrs. Freda Woehler, Mrs. Gertrude Clougherty, Mrs. Ethel Selk, Mrs. Sally Fairfield, Mrs. Agnes Stringfellow, Mrs. Gladys Merriman, Miss Joan Woehler, Mrs. Ann Schultz, Mrs. Miriam Hilmer, Mrs. Elizabeth Summers.—Glean Drury, Publicity Chairman.

Funeral Services Held for L. E. Tipton, Former Resident

Luther E. Tipton, a former resident of Sierra Madre, passed away in San Gabriel on August 27 at the age of 81 years, 11 months and 15 days. Born in Cedar County, Iowa, Mr. Tipton was a member of the Quaker Church, of Odd Fellows Lodge of Hope, Idaho, and when in active life was custodian of schools at Catalina Island. Upon his retirement from active duties, he lived in Sierra Madre until two years ago when he moved to San Gabriel.

Left to mourn his passing are his nieces, Mrs. Thelma Ray of Hollywood, Mrs. Nina O'Rourke of San Francisco, Mrs. Mildred Pickard of Indianapolis, Iowa, and Mrs. Ethel Truitt of Helena, Okla.; also a nephew, Dr. Frank Mott of the University of Missouri.

Services were conducted in Sierra Madre at Grant Chapel at 11 a.m. Wednesday, with Rev. Frederic Groetsma officiating. Interment was in Sierra Madre cemetery.

WITH SIERRA MADRE BOYS AND GIRLS IN THE SERVICE

Master Sgt. Richard C. Warren of the Inspector General's Department, who arrived home from the New Guinea area last Thursday, is spending a few days' leave at home with his wife, the former Vivian Bailey of 61 Windsor lane. Master Sgt. Warren was in the first wave of Yank troops to land on Saipan when it was taken, and has been in the New Guinea area for the past two years.

Word has been received from Pvt. Harry L. (Roy) Embree, 39711774, that he has been assigned for duty with the Signal Corps as a Radio Operator, and is stationed in New Guinea. His address is APO 301, Co. B, 58th Signal Bn., c/o P. M., San Francisco.

More Sierra Madre Boys Join Colors

Carlos Candelaria, who resided with his parents at 62 Windsor lane, has enlisted as an Army paratrooper and is at Ft. McCarr. He is awaiting his training assignment.

Stanley Levine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Levine of 161 N. Lima st., has passed his physical examination and is waiting to be called into the Navy. He expects his call any day now. Stanley will not be 18 until the last of November. His young brother Marvin enters Wilson Jr. High School this fall along with several other Sierra Madre young people.

Damon E. Harkins, son of Faris E. Harkins of 310 N. Mountain Trail ave., enlisted in the Merchant Marine August 23, and is at home awaiting call to active service. He is looking forward to the 18 months of schooling he will receive in course of his training.

Rev. Peter J. Weber, Retired Priest, is Called by Death

Rev. Peter J. Weber of 93 N. Sunnyside ave., died at his home early last Thursday morning, aged 80 years.

He was born in Luxembourg in 1864 and came to the United States as a young boy. He took his clerical training at Milwaukee, Wis., and was ordained in the priesthood June 24, 1893. He spent his early priesthood at St. Nicholas Church, in Aurora, Ill., but due to ill health he was forced to resign in 1923, when he came to Sierra Madre. He celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood in 1943.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at St. Rita's church. Additional services will be conducted in Chicago, where the body has been taken for interment.

Father Weber was well known in Sierra Madre. His priestly zeal yet cheerful and tolerant character made him respected and admired by all. His many friends will feel they have suffered a distinct loss by his death.

Hillbillies Want Action

Horseshoe pitching enthusiasts met at City Park Tuesday evening at the invitation of John Chambers to organize a club. John Smurda was elected president and Belton High was named secretary-treasurer. Dues of $1 per year were agreed upon, and the name chosen was Wistaria Horseshoe Club, but it is to be known familiarly as "The Hill Billies."

In the hope that tournaments can soon be arranged, several clubs in neighboring towns have been challenged. A night tournament with the Rosemead "pitchers" will probably be played in the near future. Practice sessions are held each Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Charter members include Ted Anderson of 240 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Earl Benson of W. Sierra Madre Blvd., A. J. Billings of 619 W. Montecito ave., John Chambers of 313 Ramona ave., Charles Cullum of 411 Sturtevant dr., Tom Durling of 119 E. Highland ave., Virgil Frenzen of 480 E. Highland ave., Joe Hedges of 146 S. Hermosa ave., Belton High of 621 Alta Vista dr., G. C. Lauber of 184 Auburn ave., J. W. Miller of 67 W. Highland ave., John Peters of 191 N. Baldwin ave., John Smurda of 58 E. Laurel ave., Al Sovinski and J. A. Van Meter, both of 70 W. Highland ave.

Sailor Shippey is Wise on Foxholes

Charles Shippey, Signalman 3/c of the Navy, son of Columnist and Mrs. Lee Shippey of 297 Nehr dr., has had experience in foxholes of Guam. The report came from a friend of "Chuck" who has arrived on the mainland to attend officers' training school. At every landing of Marines on an island some seamen are sent ashore to act as contact men between ship and shore. It was on one such occasion that "Chuck" received his introduction to fox hole maneuvers. Needless to say he did not relate his experience to his parents.

Ed. Spoelstra Lost Life in Invasion

Pfc. Edward Spoelstra, former Sierra Madreen, was killed in action in the invasion of France. First reported by the War Department as missing in action on July 18, his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

PFC. EDWARD SPOELSTRA

John Spoelstra, received a telegram on Saturday announcing his death. He was with the first contingent of infantrymen to land in Normandy at dawn on D-Day. More details of his death were promised by the War Department later.

Pvt. Spoelstra had been in the service for 18 months. He was home on furlough at Easter and shortly afterward went overseas, being stationed in England until the invasion. Last word his parents had from him was a letter dated June 14. He was well known here, having served as manager of the fruit and vegetable department in a market conducted by his father, later holding similar positions in other stores here. His parents, members of the Congregational Church here, reside in Monrovia now and his father, John Spoelstra, is manager of the Arcadia Market Basket store.

Great Development in Alaska Seen by Visitor Here

Alaska will without doubt be the new frontier in North America following the war and thousands of service men stationed there for defense plan to return to make homes, Harold A. Richards of Cordova, Alaska, told a group of friends of Mrs. Fannie Sea at her home Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Richards, with two adopted native Alaskan girls, told about experiences covering a number of years' stay in the northern territory and showed magnificent colored slides brought with them on their journey through the States.

Not only is Alaska rich in minerals of many kinds, in fertile soil, in pleasant climate, but it also is the locale of vast areas of pulp wood, enough timber of that kind to supply America with paper for years to come. However, the Richards say that in the 600,000 square miles of country there are as yet only 80,000 people, and only 2500 miles of roads.

Registration for PJC Students Set

Working students unable to register during the day for study at Pasadena Junior College may call SY. 3-5111 for appointments for registering this (Thursday) evening from 7 to 9, provided a transcript of credits has been transferred to Junior College.

Students entering the 13th year must take a placement examination held at the East Campus, 1570 E. Colorado st., Saturday, Sept. 2 at 8 a.m. Each examinee must report to College Student Union, get two blue books, and bring his own fountain pen. There is no charge. Students must be on time, for no late comers will be permitted to take the examination which will require about four hours.

Registration for late afternoon and evening classes will be held September 5, 6 and 7 both during the day and evening. Classes start September 11. Phone SY. 3-5111, Station 28 for schedule of extended day classes.

Time to Qualify for November Election is Growing Short

It is estimated that there are between 400 and 500 local residents who will not be able to vote at the November Presidential election unless they are registered, many of them having moved here since the last general election and failed to register until now.

September 28 is the last day for registrations before the election. Residents may register any day between now and then at the office of the city clerk in the city hall, or with any one of five other deputy registrars just appointed by the county registrar of voters.

The registrars so appointed and their addresses are: Precinct 1, city clerk, city hall, 55 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.; Precinct 2, Mrs. Gladys W. Merriman, 650 W. Montecito ave.; Precinct 3, Mrs. Vivian Warren, 61 Windsor lane; Precinct 4, Mrs. Josephine Elizabeth Marr, 204 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.; Precinct 6, Mrs. Myrtle O'Banion, 337 Camillo st.

Plan Treat for 385 Toy Loan Members

As a special summer treat for the 385 young members of the Toy Loan Library, the Civic Club is planning a party to be held in the city park, Friday, September 8 at 10 a.m. The toy loan committee, consisting of Mrs. Alta Butler, Mrs. Eva Moore, librarian; Miss Ruth Miles, Miss Regina Rivera and Miss Jean Edwards, extends an invitation to every child who has membership in the library. There will be refreshments, games and prizes and lots of fun promised for all.

Among special events being planned for the party will be the awarding of adoption dolls and honor toys to those children who have attained the required 20 satisfactory marks on their membership cards.

Honor gifts and dolls awarded for merit are all new toys and have never been loaned at the center. In attaining the 20 "S's", the child has proven itself to be responsible and respectful of property and is eligible for an award. It is a great moment in the life of a little girl when she receives her first adoption papers on her doll and finally becomes its "legal mother" at the end of a six-week period.

Since the library was opened seven months ago, 35 dolls have been adopted and many honor gifts awarded.

Bruce McGill Heads Sierra Madre's Legion Post

Bruce McGill was installed as commander of Sierra Madre's American Legion Post 297 at a meeting Monday evening, succeeding Maj. P. B. Linville.

Assuming their positions with him were other recently elected officers of the post, Walter Nollac, first vice-commander, Lloyd B. Welch, second vice-commander, Vinton Hoegge adjutant, P. B. Linville chaplain, and Bob Carter historian.

Regular monthly meetings will be held henceforth on the first Monday of each month.

Sierra Madre WAC Promoted in Italy

Announcement comes from the Army Peninsular Base Headquarters in Italy that WAC Phyllis M. Dukeshire, who is working in the Medical Section of the Base Section there has been promoted to the rank of corporal technician 5th grade. Cpl. Dukeshire is the daughter of Philip D. Dukeshire of 383 W. Grand View ave. She was an occupational therapist for Newberry State Hospital in Newberry, Mich., before entering the Women's Army Corps over a year ago. She has now served eight months in Italy.

Peninsular Base Section is the Service of Supply for Fifth Army and for ground crews and installations of the U. S. Air Force and Navy in Italy.

Boy Scout Conducts Kiwanis Meeting

A feature of the weekly Kiwanis Club luncheon meeting on Tuesday was a two-minute extemporaneous speech given in excellent form by Boy Scout Calvin Floyd, who in this way won his merit badge in public speaking. The latter part of the meeting was also conducted by Scout Floyd as part of his citizenship training.

The Weather

Twice during the last week the mercury hopped over the 100 mark in Sierra Madre, Saturday being much the hottest day of the year. Temperatures for the week have been:

	Max.	Min.
August 24	88	55
August 25	84	56
August 26	90	56
August 27	104	62
August 28	97	62
August 29	98	66
August 30	102	58

School Tax Rate Fixed at $2.1549

The board of county supervisors fixed the Sierra Madre school district tax rate for the 1944-45 fiscal year at $2.1549 on Tuesday, when the rates for all other districts of Los Angeles county were announced. The rate includes the elementary school here, the Pasadena Junior high school and the Junior college and is approximately one cent under the rate for last year.

Tax bills that Sierra Madreens will receive shortly now that the last of the taxes have been assessed, will call for a total of $54823 for each $100 of assessed valuation, divided as follows: on Sierra Madre School $2.1549, on Sierra Madre City $1.90, on Los Angeles County $1.2448, on L. A. County Flood Control .1826.

Local Men to Boost Proposition No. 1

Announcement has been made of the appointment of Bruce McGill, P. B. Linville and Vinton Hoegge to the Veterans' Home and Farm Committee. This State-wide committee is being formed to campaign for the passage of Proposition No. 1 on the November ballot. The proposition carries a $30,000,000 bond issue, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the purchase of homes and farms for California Veterans of World War II. This activity will be administered by the Veterans' Welfare Board of California, which was organized in 1921 for the purpose of servicing, in a like manner, the veterans of World War I.

Hoover Estate Here Reported Sold to John M. Olmsted

Sale of the five-acre Herbert Hoover Jr. estate on North Hillside Blvd. to John M. Olmsted, who has taken possession and has moved onto the place, was reported this week. On the estate in addition to the large home is a care-taker's house, swimming pool, etc. The Olmsteds came here from Chicago several years ago and leased the Italia Mia estate of Miss Thomasella Graham on N. Lima st. where they lived for five years. The latter place has also just been sold. Reputed consideration in the Hoover-Olmsted transaction, which was handled by a Pasadena concern, is $50,000.

Ration Board Needs Many Helpers for Gas Book Rush

The renewal period for Basic A Ration Books has rolled around again and inasmuch as it hits the Rationing Board at one of its peak-load activity periods, the need for volunteer help is critical. The issuance of "A" Books is not at all technical in character—anyone can do it, so the board asks, "won't all of you good folks pitch in and give this vital job a lift—especially those of you who have never put in any time as a volunteer worker?"

Lack of transportation need not stop you—just phone the city hall, tell them what days or parts of days you can serve and where you live, and transportation will be arranged.

There are 8000 "A" books to be issued in the local book area. A lot of folks just won't receive their "A" Books by the deadline. Your help will be desperately needed the next four-week period.

The following Sierra Madreens have served faithfully and well during the past few weeks and earned many thanks from the over-worked board members: Mrs. Ruth Thurber, Gordon Felts, Cameron T. Dickinson, Mrs. Gladys Ruble, Miss Regina Rivera, Mrs. Vera Gibb, Mrs. Thelma Hammer, Mrs. Gloria Hinchaw, Mrs. Gwyn Boissevain, Mrs. C. L. T. Herbert, Mrs. E. G. Everett, Mrs. Beatrice Strite and Mrs. Frances Yeckley.

Hazel Hurst Blind Foundation Near Sierra Madre Now

The Hazel Hurst Foundation for the Blind, which has made its headquarters at Monrovia in the past, has moved to the corner of Barhite and Sierra Madre Villa ave., on the former estate of Dr. A. B. Cliff. Here Larry Trimble and his seeing-eye dogs will carry on their humanitarian work of providing aid for the blind. Here also the Foundation will expand its facilities to meet the emergency facing it as a result of the war. Extensive training grounds will be established, industrial shops will be erected, an eye clinic for prevention of blindness will be inaugurated, the swimming pool and rumpus room will be used to give the blind recreation.

The Foundation is a philanthropic organization, maintained entirely by voluntary contributions. A son, James Anthony, was born to Staff Sgt. James and Mrs. Katherine at the Pasadena Regional Hospital August 19. Keller, formerly of the local post-office staff, is stationed at Pearl Harbor and was home on furlough when the boy arrived.

Worst is Yet to Come for Ration Boards

Several members of the local War Price and Rationing Board attended the meeting at the Embassy Auditorium on Thursday, August 24, at which Chester Bowles was the principal speaker. Mr. Bowles stressed, among other things, the hard, realistic fact that the responsibility of the board members, heavy as it has been in the past, will be even heavier in the future. That the economic stability of the nation depends on the patriotic, wholehearted, hard work of the board members in keeping rationing and price control in hand is beyond question. He also stated that the boards face a long, hard pull, the end of which no one can predict.

FOUND COLD WEATHER RIGHT NEAR HOME, TOO

Mr. and Mrs. Perry E. Kellogg of 425 W. Sierra Madre blvd. found Lake Arrowhead weather cold, but the fishing good, they reported upon their return from a two weeks' stay at Pine View Lodge early in the week.

BETHANY CHURCH SCHOOL CLASS HAS A PICNIC

The Ambassador's Sunday school class of Bethany Church enjoyed a picnic Friday at Arcadia's county park. Some 60 people enjoyed the picnic dinner and later gathered around the fire place to listen to Arthur Mouw tell some of his experiences as a missionary in Borneo.

Girl Scouts Enjoy Biggest Event of the Scout Year

The city park was a scene of gay festivity Saturday afternoon and evening when girls from three local Scout troops gathered for their annual "cook-out." Three fires were started in the picnic grounds with the assistance of Park Supt. Lauber, over one of which the great kettle of muligan stew was placed. Each girl prepared vegetables to add to the stew, and having it cared for, went to the lawn to play games until called to discuss the success of the stew. Being too warm for uniforms the park was brilliant with color as the girls roamed over the picnic grounds. After dishes were washed in the most approved Scout manner all gathered about one of the fires and under the leadership of Mrs. S. E. Peterson, sang such camp favorites as "Home on the Range," "Tenting Tonight," and regulation Scout melodies. Before curfew sounded the girls were on their way home, voting it the best experience of the Scout year. Leaders and mothers responsible for the success of the affair were Meses. Sam Haskins, S. E. Peterson, Ralph Valencia, Ted Miller, Bruno Tyron, Carl Annas and W. R. Smythe.

EIGHT BROWNIES ARE REAL SCOUTS NOW

Brownie Scout Troop 5 under the leadership of Mrs. J. J. O'Connor of 473 Orange Grove ave., and Mrs. G. E. deBorde of 46 N. Lima st., met in the Park Thursday morning with nose-bag lunch to play games, work on pot holders and to receive Girl Scout manuals. There were eight members of the troop who in the June fly-up ceremony had become Girl Scouts, and are no longer Brownies. They are Linda deBorde, Mollie O'Donnell, Carol Lee Emmerling, Barbara Fergus, Françoise deHurtmont, Dixie Louise Martin, Patricia Randolph and Arden Wallace.

Four Generations of Family Go Fishin'

Sgt. Norman Jensen Jr. of the Army Air Corps, home on furlough, from Salinas, went fishing last Wednesday. With him went his grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Jensen of 273 Mariposa ave.; his wife, Mrs. Nellie Jensen; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Hunt; his son, Norman Jensen III, and his sister, Mrs. Garrison and her small son Freddie. The four generations went fishing at Long Beach.

Canyon Couple Wed

Mrs. Ralph Post and Earl Herbert, both of Canyon Park, were married Friday morning at 9 o'clock by Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard at his home, 121 E. Alegria ave. Mrs. Post's daughter and two other friends were present to wish them happiness. After a week at Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert will make their home on Vista Circle dr.

Celebrates First Mayor's Birthday

Miss Martha Pritchard and Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard of 121 E. Alegria ave. entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank of 42 E. Carter ave., and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of 49 E. Alegria ave. at dinner Thursday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Jones, who was the city's first mayor.

Committees of ALA Unit Announced

A record audience was at the lovely garden installation and potluck supper of the American Legion Auxiliary held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hopper last Thursday evening. President-elect Bertha Irvine and her new officers were inducted into office by Maybelle Barker, past president. Catherine Miller, retiring president of two terms, presented her outgoing officers with gifts of appreciation. Gifts were also presented to the president-elect and outgoing president by the past presidents and unit members.

Former President Helene Smith, now of Santa Barbara, a guest, gave an interesting account of the American Legion conference in San Francisco which she attended. She reported that they especially stressed the G.I. Bill of Rights and the Veterans Farm and Home Loan Bill as the two important features of the conference.

Chaplain Bertha Sammit asked for a six months' leave of absence as she is leaving Sierra Madre this week for an extended visit in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Irvine announces the following committees for the year's work: Membership, Leila Embree; child welfare, Sylvia Quittner; community service and war work, Lucile Pickett; ways and means, Lucile Nollac; hospital, Lotta Hopper; poppy, Orceila Stinman; constitution and by-laws and publicity, Maybelle Barker; education, Minnie Stinman; hostess, Lucile Nollac; musician, Claire Moon.

The unit will meet at the Red Cross rooms on Tuesday evening, Sept. 5, to roll bandages.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Anna Block, 544 Oakdale dr., on Sept. 14. Members will meet at Pickett's service station at 7:45 for transportation.

Guests at the last meeting were Mrs. Ben Lyon, Mrs. Helene Smith of Santa Barbara, Ruth Kelleher of Pasadena and Mrs. L. McElfresh of Los Angeles.—Maybelle Barker, Press.

Former Visitor is a Resident Now

Another newcomer who is here because she likes the kind of people who live here, and the kind of town it is, is Mrs. Elsie Clinton, recent arrival from Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Clinton spent a summer in the Sierra Madre Canyon several years ago with her small son, who is now in the Pacific on Uncle Sam's business. Returning to Southern California looking for a home, she drove into the canyon to renew happy memories, hardly daring to hope to find a house. But at the entrance she saw a man making up a for rent sign. She rented the house, answered an ad in The News, and soon signed a year's contract with the Fuller Brush Co. to act as local representative.

War Veterans May Learn their Rights

Every veteran of the armed services upon being discharged, will receive a booklet entitled "Your Rights and Benefits, A Handy Guide for Veterans of the Armed Forces and Their Dependents." The booklet was prepared by the Retraining and Re-employment Administration of the Office of War Mobilization. Nearly 2,500,000 copies of the booklet are now available. Veterans who have already been discharged will be able to obtain copies from draft boards, Offices of Veterans Administration, USES or Community Veterans' Information Centers.

Soldier Buys Home Here; Opens Shop

Pvt. Richard Bromley of an Army amphibian outfit, who received his medical discharge recently, has opened a gift shop in Pasadena. In January the Bromleys purchased the Don J. Johnson home at 181 W. Grand View ave., coming to Sierra Madre from Balboa.

FIT FOR A BUSY YEAR

Supt. of Schools Henry Korsmeier and wife of 223 San Gabriel ct. are at home getting ready for the year's work. The vacation with them has been a very restful period. A week of visiting in Long Beach, another in San Francisco, but most of the summer just relaxing, not even much gardening, although that is a hobby with Supt. Korsmeier.

Dorothy Parmenter Becomes Bride of a Navy Gunner

The Wedding Chapel in Pasadena was lighted with candles, and lined with white flowers as the scene of a lovely wedding Wednesday evening when Miss Dorothy Parmenter, formerly of Sierra Madre, was wed to Gunner's Mate 2/c Lyle E. Penfold of Pasadena. Attending Miss Parmenter were Miss Dorothy Jeffers, maid of honor, dressed in blue organza and lace, and Miss Muriel Fitchett of Sierra Madre, wearing pink organza and lace. Both maids carried bouquets of pastel asters and dahlias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the chapel, after which the happy couple went to Lake Mary in the High Sierra for a short honeymoon. They will make their home in San Francisco where Gunner's Mate Penfold will await further orders.

Miss Parmenter lived with her parents on Grand View ave. when in Sierra Madre. Miss Parmenter attended local schools and later was employed in the Army Hospital office at Palm Springs. The groom has but recently returned from a nine months' assignment in the Pacific.

READY STONES TO MAKE THEIR HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Remington Stone of 321 E. Grand View ave. have finally persuaded Mr. Stone's brother's family to try Sierra Madre as a home place. Mr. and Mrs. Reedy Stone and small son Wayne have arrived and are located at 252 1/2 E. Grand View ave.

ABOLISH SALES TAX?

Editor Sierra Madre News: The new Retirement System for California Citizens covered in Proposition No. 11 on our November ballot will aid rather than harm the California public school system.

This Act repeals the 2 1/2 % State sales tax which has been supplying funds for certain State government functions, and for the operation of the public school system. To replenish the funds which will stop with repeal of the sales and use taxes, this Retirement Act provides that from the total sum collected under the 3% tax on gross incomes, 20% of it, but not greater than a total of one hundred million dollars per year, shall be turned into the State general fund to be kept in a separate account, and be expended for the support of those government functions and the public school system.

Thus, the proposed act does not harm the school system, but rather, can be expected to improve its financial status. For it further provides that if this gross income tax produces over one billion dollars annually, 10% of all receipts over the billion dollars shall be deposited in the general fund account as an addition to the 20% already set aside for the public school system, thus increasing its available balance.

August 25, 1944.

Dear Mr. Goshorn: Since you have been so very kind, and especially so generous with news of the Girl Scouts in your paper, we certainly think that it calls for a word of appreciation which we all feel.

We are all more than grateful to you for the publicity given, and surely grateful and pleased over the amount of space devoted to our activities. We want you to know these favors have not gone unnoticed. . . Thank you again.

VERONICA G. WEBSTER,
Corresponding Secretary.

WOMEN PLOUGHING AND HARVESTING KANSAS CROPS

Mrs. Bertha Kirchner of 47 Vista Circle dr. has been spending much of the summer at Long Beach while her brother was in Kansas looking after farming interests. Mrs. Kirchner reports crops in Kansas extremely satisfactory, but help so scarce that women and young girls drive tractors ploughing fields and harvesting crops.

WITH SIERRA MADRE BOYS AND GIRLS IN THE SERVICE

Cpl. Kenneth E. Heasley of the Marines, stationed at Kingston, N. C., reached home last week for a six-day furlough which he spent with his wife in El Monte.

First Lt. Joseph A. Hall Jr. of 611 W. Grand View ave., Sierra Madre, who received his M. D. degree from the University of Manitoba, was a member of another large class of officers of the Medical Department graduated August 17 from the Medical Field Service School, Carlisle Barracks, Pa., and is now qualified for duty with troops in the field after six weeks of intensive training.

Lt. Richard W. Frank has just been placed in charge of an M. P. unit, stationed at a Combat Crew Replacement Center in England. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Frank of 46 1/2 E. Highland ave. On active duty for two and a half years he has been in the European theatre of operations for 18 months. He was in the advertising department of the New York Times before being called to service. His wife lives in New York City.

T/Sgt. Harold I. Stitt Jr., of the General Hospital Unit, returned last Wednesday from 27 months' duty overseas. For 17 months Sgt. Stitt was in New Guinea, but he spent the last nine months in Australia. He came into San Francisco with the second contingent of war brides to enter the country. Nothing ever looked so good to him as his own home State, reports the sergeant, although he values the experience and education he has received. His leave is for 23 days, when he will report to San Francisco for future assignment.

Ted Berman, former Disney animator, and husband of Mrs. Bertha Berman of 153 Wilson ave., has been enrolled in the United States Marine Corps and is in recruit training at the San Diego base. He attended the Chouinard Art Institute for two years and is a graduate of Roosevelt High School, Los Angeles. After recruit training he will be transferred to the Marine Corps schools in Quantico, Va., for advanced training in photographic work.

T/Sgt. Val. L. Mariotti, a radio gunner on a B-17 somewhere over Europe, has been awarded the air medal, Oak Leaf Cluster, and has received Presidential citation twice within the last two months, his friends here have been advised.

Pfc. J. D. Graham has been transferred from the Army Medical Corps to the 9th M. Truck Co., somewhere in England, reports his mother, Mrs. J. D. Graham of 29 Windsor lane.

Pvt. Warren P. Jones of an Army Signal Battalion is stationed at Camp Crowder, Joplin, Mo. When he was given a six-day furlough he decided to spend as little time in travel as possible. By the judicious use of his personality he arrived in Sierra Madre 10 hours before the train on which he was expected to travel. But this is not at all surprising to Sierra Madreans who remember how Pvt. Jones organized a Junior Chamber of Commerce in Sierra Madre "before the war." He has been gone less than two years, but he declares Sierra Madre has become a ghost town after eight o'clock, whereas that used to be the lively time of day for the young fry. Pvt. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Jones of 161 E. Alegria ave.

Ask the Professor

By H. F. Noake

Dear Professor:

Just got a new phonograph from my boy friend, but have no pieces to play on it. Where can I get Moonlight Sonata, Cow Cow Boogie and Dozy Doats?

Ans.: The Hall of Records.

Dear Professor:

Where did the expression, "Naked Truth" originate?

Ans.: Probably some nudist colony.

Dear Professor:

What, in your opinion, does the future hold for aviation after the war?

Ans.: When peace comes, it's my guess the aeroplane will make just about everybody soar.

Dear Professor:

Our young son is absolutely unmanageable. Can't do a thing with him. Scoldings go right over his head. Don't you think it's time to give him a darn good licking?

Ans.: Always remember this, madam, a dog is more apt to sit up and bark if you pet him.

Sierra Madre Lures a Boston Family

Mr. and Mrs. Leland S. Barnes and five-year-old Kenneth came to Sierra Madre in June. They used to live in Boston, but on cold winter nights spent many hours talking of the time when they would come to California to live. Driving about Southern California early in the season they fell in love with the local setting, saw their present home at 323 W. Highland ave. in the morning, bought it in the afternoon, and are living there happily. Mr. Barnes is connected with the Pasadena Ray Control, while Mrs. Barnes looks forward to P.T.A. membership when Kenneth shall become a pupil at the grammar school in September.

Flowering Trees Here Attract a New York Artist

The artist many Sierra Madreans saw working at his easel on Hermosa ave. Sunday afternoon and Monday was Thornton Wallace of Rochester, N. Y., noted illustrator and designer of magazine covers. Passing through Sierra Madre two weeks before he was caught by the rare beauty of the red flowering eucalyptus trees that line both sides of Hermosa ave. and decided to return and put them on canvas. Also he scurried about and learned much concerning them.

Trees were planted by A. A. Adams, father of Roland Adams, who came to Sierra Madre in 1906 and for whom Adams st. is named. He hauled water in barrels for and otherwise nursed the saplings until now they attract the attention of all visitors and newcomers.

Hinshaw Urges U. S. Take Paramushiro for Orient Air Base

Home this week from an air tour of Alaska with a Congressional committee inquiring into the frightful waste and extravagance in connection with war projects in the territory, Congressman Carl Hinshaw advocated acquisition of the Paramushiro present Japanese naval base as a key port of entry for future United States air traffic to the Orient.

The West Coast must look to the Orient for the bulk of its postwar trade, said the Congressman, and it will be conducted chiefly by air traffic.

"Russia may object to our development of Paramushiro," said Mr. Hinshaw, "but this might be overcome by means of diplomatic exchanges."

The air route to the Orient, as the Congressman visions it, will be via Dutch Harbor, thence to Paramushiro. With Paramushiro as a hub, trade routes by the air would fan out to Shanghai, points in Russia and the Philippines.

I have been more and more convinced, the more I think of it, that, in general, pride is at the bottom of all great mistakes.—Ruskin.

An Election Guess

One well-known political observer estimates that California women will cast 50 to 60 per cent of the total vote in this State in November. The situation is expected to be much the same throughout the entire nation.

Principal reason for this, of course, is that the war has taken millions of men out of the country and displaced millions more.

We wonder, however, what such a grand old warrior as Susan B. Anthony would think if she could see the women now. For half a century she carried on her untiring fight to give the fair sex the right of the ballot. In 1872, she boldly voted in the Presidential election. Although she was arrested and fined, the fine was never enforced.

Susan B. Anthony didn't live to see the fruition of her work for she passed away in 1906. It was some years later before the individual States began to extend the voting right to women, and even as late as 1918, only 15 States had taken such action. National suffrage became effective on August 26, 1920—just 24 years ago.

But there is no doubt now that the women have "arrived" politically, and Susan B. Anthony would be proud of them.

Asking But Little

Did you ever hear of a soldier getting too much mail? Neither did we. There just isn't any such thing. And it is well to bear that fact in mind.

Mail from home is just as important as food, ammunition and guns. If the men "out there" or "over there" don't hear from their families regularly, they get worried—and worried soldiers can't fight as well as those who are frequently reassured that all is well back home. Even when a fighting man must be told that things aren't so well, it is better for him to know it than to hear nothing at all.

You may have heard of the group of American soldiers who were surrounded by the Japs. Word got through that the mail had just arrived in camp. The Japs were killed in the rush of those boys to get their mail. Yes, it does sound like a tall story, but it brings out the point that our men in service "go" for mail as they do for nothing else.

So write often. Short letters sent frequently are better than lengthy ones written only occasionally.

If we do the writing, they will do the fighting. Certainly that isn't asking too much of us.

An Unfailing Barometer

To students of modern history, the classified columns of newspapers are as important in composing the picture of an era as battles, dates or the oratorical profundities of politicians spread so lavishly over the front pages.

Where else but in the classified "help wanted" columns can one measure the startling contrast between the conditions of labor today and its status 10 years ago, say, during the depression? Then, the pages were heavily burdened with pleas for work, spreading column on column the tragic tale of want and worry. Now, the columns carry the happier story of good jobs everywhere, with high salaries and new incentives competing for the worker's attention.

Where else but in the classified ads can one find a better picture of the housing shortage prevailing in most of California today? A few years ago every community had its quota of vacant houses and unoccupied business buildings. People couldn't afford to rent them, and every community's loss was reflected in its lengthy "for rent" columns. Today, with war workers and new residents cramming the Coast, the want ads, particularly in the metropolitan areas, plead for living quarters.

As perhaps no other medium, the classified columns of newspapers image the daily lives of the people, their comings and goings, their routine transactions, their economic condition.

Today they show a people readjusting their lives to new requirements, working at unaccustomed tasks, making the best of wartime shortages by exchanging among themselves the things needed to ease the burdens of war.

Tomorrow, those same people, newly united with their sons and daughters now in war services, will still be going about the prosaic but inspiring business of living in an era that mirrors its own moods and records its own doings so faithfully, in its classified advertising columns.

Significant Greeting

In China, the traditional greeting of friends for ages past has been, "Have you had your meal?" The Chinese don't expect an exact reply to the question, just as we don't expect a detailed answer to our friendly salutation, "Hello! How are you?" But China, living for years in Jap-made darkness, has adopted a new salutation when friends meet, according to press dispatches from Chungking.

Today Chinese in Japanese-occupied areas greet each other with the phrase, "Nearly Dawn." It serves to symbolize their faith in the deliverance of their country and in the speedy victory of the United Nations over Japan.

The patient Chinese have endured much at the hands of the Japanese invaders. Lacking weapons, they fought the enemy with bare hands and unquenchable spirit. Throughout the darkest days they surrendered territory—but never their belief in ultimate victory.

No description of the present status of the war in the Pacific could be more appropriate than the new greeting adopted by the Chinese. It is indeed "Nearly Dawn" for China and conversely "Nearly Sunset" for the once brilliant sun of the brutal Nipponese.

Here and There

by Dean A. G. H. Bode

THIS is to be a column for Labor Day, a day instituted to show our appreciation of the workers of the United States. When we proudly say that the standard of living of our workers is the highest in the world—which is true of many of them—we do not forget that the rise of the working people, as any good history book will show, came through the struggles of the workers themselves, against almost unbelievable opposition, to rise from a miserable status to self-respect and a decent standard of living.

To mention a few of the struggles, which have come under my immediate observation, I remember seamen struggling for 20 years against powerful opposition for decent conditions in place of damp and smelly foc'sles and wretched food.

I remember workers struggling to be relieved from working 12 hours a day, seven days a week, and never seeing their children by daylight; and miners struggling for safety devices against fearful danger. I used to know their shacks, their poverty, and their widows and orphans. I remember garment workers, ill paid, in unsafe factories, having to wait till comrades were burned to death, as in the Triangle fire, before they could obtain decent and safe conditions. In Los Angeles a few years ago I heard from the girls in a garment factory how they were ordered to punch the time-clock only on alternate days, and then were paid only for the days they punched, thus losing half their meager wages. There was an inspector, but he was employed by the factory to decide the pay according to the clock. The girls were afraid to complain for fear of losing their jobs (we have not reached the time when "none shall make them afraid").

OUR government has recently come to the aid of workers in exposing and outlawing the spies, thugs, guns, and gas-bombs used against them in their struggles for decent wages and conditions. I am glad on Labor Day to join in honoring those who by their sacrifices have raised the standard of living of the workers, incidentally benefiting whole communities which supply their needs.

Dean Hodges has said: "The problem of labor arises out of the desire of men to better their condition and thereby better themselves. It is partly from the urge for progress and partly from the fraternal spirit which is of the essence of the Christian religion. No underprivileged American ought to be willing to go on living a narrow and defective life, and no good American is willing that he should. Thus from two directions, the endeavor is made to get wrongs righted, and to give every man a good fair chance."

IF I wrote nothing else in this 1944 Labor Day column, I would write with the greatest emphasis how greatly I deplore the fact called to our attention by noted writers who tell us that "a prejudice has been built up of late against labor unions by the reporting by press and radio of the quarter of 1 per cent of time lost through some wildcat strikes, as if those microscopic work stoppages represented general sabotage of the war effort." Labor made no strike pledge and, according to government reports, the pledge was kept 99.75 per cent in 1943, equally in 1944, and 99.91 per cent last June. This has not been told. By failing to tell the whole truth about labor, and thus creating an impression opposite to the truth, our free press and radio have been used to impair the morale of labor, to jeopardize the war effort, and to turn soldier and sailor against worker. Fortunately the men in the forces have begun to know the truth. The newspaper read in the Pacific—"The Mid-Pacific"—says: "Note must be taken of the way certain periodicals reaching soldiers have begun a campaign against labor. This is not new. As in the present case, such drives are based on half truth and omissions." The paper goes on to say that the soldiers, most of whom are working men, are gravely concerned about this unfair carping. "The soldier asks that both sides be given an even break."

TO the question whether our soldiers have ever been without munitions because of strikes or stoppages at home, General Lucius D. Clay, Service Forces Director, replied: "There has never been a case, so far as we have heard, where our men lacked ammunition due to any strike or lag in production."

"We have met every demand for munitions and supplies since the beginning of the war. We are grateful for the production effort the country has made up to the present time."

At another conference with the press, Colonels Clarke and Gravelly, who had just returned from the Mediterranean, repeated Gen. Clay's statement. Said Col. Clarke: "We have never heard of a case where a strike caused a lag in supplies to our men. Generally we have had what we needed, when we needed it, in the quantities we needed."

The six labor leaders just now visiting the front, and meeting with Generals Eisenhower, Bradley and Lee and many of the soldiers, report, as shown in the Pasadena papers, that "the men recognize this strike talk as propaganda," and that "90 per cent of the men are in favor of the unions." About a million of our defenders are union men, and most soldiers are sons or brothers of workers at home. It looks as if a growing enmity between soldiers and unions is being ended. The men know that labor's record will compare favorably with not only soldiers in training but soldiers at the front going AWOL.

And the Department of Labor will show that labor's miracles of production surpass those of any other group or class in the country.

THE shortages just reported of supplies needed in the sudden vast operations of several armies of invasion are attributed to talk of great surpluses and the diversion of manpower to peacetime jobs. Leaders and workers at once concentrate on speeding supplies.

We cannot forget the sad subject of casualties. Some men at home lose their brothers in battles at the front, and some men at the front lose their brothers in war work at home, where they are supposed to be safe. But this week the California State Director of Industrial Relations reports that since Pearl Harbor and up to last month more California persons have been killed at home on the production front than the boys from California killed in action on all battle fronts. We are all in it together, working and sacrificing for victory and a better world. Above all, we need to be united, and this column was intended to help by giving some facts. People's hearts are good, but they need the facts. There is a story of a man in a train, walking up and down trying to quiet a crying baby, to the irritation of the passengers. "Why didn't you bring the wife along?" said one. "I did," he said. "She's in her coffin in the baggage car." At once everyone was changed and wanted to help. They had not known the facts.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

OUR WESTERN RIVERS

ALL RIVERS ULTIMATELY DRAINING INTO THE GULF OF MEXICO. FEDERAL NAVIGATION RULES.

SO CALLED BECAUSE THE MISSISSIPPI WAS THE WESTERN BOUNDARY OF THE U.S. BEFORE THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE—AND THE FAR-WESTERN LIMIT OF AMERICAN COLONIZATION.

THE EARLIEST COMMERCE WAS IN GREAT BARGES... AN ACRE OR SO OF WHITE BARGES, CREW OF A DOZEN MEN... THREE OR FOUR WIGWAGS FOR STORM QUARTERS... FLOATING FROM THE UPPER RIVERS DOWN TO NEW ORLEANS... TEDIOLUSLY POLED BACK BY HAND.

IN 1811 STATELY STEAMBOATS—STERN-WHEELERS AND SIDE-WHEELERS—BEGAN TO PLY THE RIVERS, HELPED BUILD THE MIDDLE WEST, THE BULK OF TRAFFIC WAS STILL DOWNSTREAM.

NOW, STEAMERS TOWING BARGES NOT ONLY RUN NORMAL LOADS DOWNSTREAM INTO THE MIDWEST AND SOUTH, BUT WARTIME CARGOES OF OIL, GASOLINE, COAL AND IRON ORE UPSTREAM—AND EAST TO PITTSBURGH AND BEYOND.

ONCE MORE—AS IN MARK TWAIN'S DAY CARRYING TREMENDOUS TONNAGE

Of the awards and citations given to a total of 105 women in the U. S. Armed Forces to date, 97 women of the Army Nurse Corps got the lion's share, OWI reported on the basis of information from Army and Navy. The Distinguished Flying Cross, highest award ever made to a woman, went to a flying Army nurse in New Guinea.

Perhaps you remember those pre-war jokes about the Los Angeles city limits extending to San Francisco's city hall, etc. cetera. Well, the tables are turned now. Drew Pearson, in his Washington Merry-Go-Round column a few days back, referred to a 35,000-acre tract of pine timber in Tehama county as being "near San Francisco." Tehama county happens to be closer, very much closer to the Oregon border than it is to the City by the Golden Gate, but the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce wants to put a marker on the outskirts of Red Bluff reading: "S. F. City Limits."

The British Army now uses dogs to detect mines. Almost any medium-sized breed will do. Loaned by private owners, the dogs are trained by soldiers of the Royal Veterinary Corps possessing infinite patience and understanding. The dogs' sensitive sense of smell enables them to detect mines buried in the ground. They are taught to indicate mines by freezing as a pointer does when marking game. Their casualties are less than if they were human since, being lighter than men, they can move among mines without the same danger of exploding them. Each dog is kept in first-class condition so that his reactions may be as accurate and rapid as possible.

Estimates are that building costs immediately after the war will be 20 to 30 per cent higher. If, and as long as, such costs prevail, present prices for existing properties will not be out of line in most cases, experts agree.

During 1943 this country's workers lost 13,000,000 man-days as a result of motor vehicle accidents. Of the total, 10,000,000 man-day losses were incurred because of off-the-job accidents, while 3,000,000 were from motor vehicle accidents incurred in the course of occupational travel.

BITS O' BUSINESS—Indicative of the rising confidence among British investors in the success of Allied arms is the rise in price of German bonds in the London market. From a price of $75 per $1000 bond in February, 1944, the bonds have increased to $165. Since 1900 the proportion of the nation's working population in agriculture has dropped from 37 to 15 per cent. This trend is expected to continue with increased farm mechanization after the war. Estimates indicate...

THINGS TO COME—Fishing by "radar." Boats equipped with sensitive echo-sound devices will be able to locate schools of fish and even determine their size and swimming direction. A new kind of musk for perfume, secured from the lowly muskrat, to take the place of natural musk formerly imported from China. Vanilla, lemon, maple and other flavors for cakes, ice cream, puddings, etc., in tablet form, each tablet equal to a teaspoonful of liquor flavor. Self-shaving barber shops where the customer shaves himself, pays only a small fee. Barbers prefer more profitable hair cutting. Cotton "overcoats" for sheep, to protect their wool from dirt, weather and loss in brush.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys
Tonight (August 31) the local fire department expects to entertain more than 100 firemen from other sections of the San Gabriel Valley, members of the San Gabriel Valley Firemen's Association. Meetings of the organization held here always bring out the largest attendance of the year, but in the absence of the firemen's State convention this year, always held in August or September, an all-time record crowd is expected.

Servicemen Exempt from Some Taxes

Servicemen from outside California but residing temporarily in the State because of military orders were reminded this week by the legal office of the 11th Naval District that any personal property they may have with them is not subject to a California tax, but that an affidavit of exemption probably will be required.

An act of Congress in July provides that where service personnel are stationed by reason of military orders in a State other than that of their permanent residence, the State where they are stationed, or any political subdivision thereof, cannot levy a tax upon the personal property at their temporary residence.

♦ Mrs. Mary J. Blanke of 271 N. Sunnyside ave. has gone to Wausau, Wis., to care for her mother who is now 83 years old. Mrs. Blanke, who has lived in Sierra Madre for 18 years, regrets the necessity for leaving her home here, for she feels that Sierra Madre is an ideal place in which to live and is glad she was able to bring up her children in such an ideal community. She adds that she does not want to miss one copy of the Sierra Madre News, her hometown paper, for by having it she will keep in touch with her friends while away.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodgers Hopewell of 256 Adams st. have returned from a 10-day trip to Los Gatos, Calif., where they have been visiting Mr. Hopewell's sister-in-law who has been very ill.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of 19 E. Alegria ave. entertained their daughter, Mrs. Hudson Proctor, Mr. Proctor and their small son Phillip, over the weekend.

♦ Miss Clara Hart of New Mexico is making a prolonged visit with her brother's family, the H. Harts of 305 W. Highland ave., who recently returned from a trip to the South.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. Milo Sabin, who formerly lived at 181 E. Grand View ave., were in Sierra Madre one day last week collecting various articles of furniture and their car. They drove to their new home in Fort Collins, Colo., where Mr. Sabin expects to take work in the Agricultural College.

♦ Mrs. Edison Thomas and daughter Purcella, of Long Beach, visited Mrs. Karl J. Kanitz of 435 E. Sierra Madre for several days last week.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodgers Hopewell of 256 Adams st. were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Watkins, Park dr. Beverly Hills. The occasion was in the nature of a family farewell party for Lt. Ronald G. Watkins who was leaving for overseas duty. Mrs. Hopewell is sister of Lt. Watkins.

♦ Mrs. Leona Holmes of 170 San Gabriel ct. spent a day last week with her daughter, Mrs. B. J. Robbins, the former Leona Holmes, of Monterey Park.

♦ Miss Peggie Hower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hower of 57 W. Laurel ave. has entered her teens. To help her celebrate the event she invited a few close friends Wednesday to spend the afternoon in games and to enjoy a birthday cake with her. Those present were Betty Jo and Susan Maule, Darrell and Doyle Gray, and Patricia Marquardt.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. Boyd E. Keith of 326 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. have returned from a two weeks' vacation at Laguna Beach.

♦ Mrs. R. E. Knowlen of 38 Windsor lane entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raines and daughters Betty and Barbara, and Mr. Reines' father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bezaeu, all of East Los Angeles, the early part of the week.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fergus, 54 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., opened their home to a group of friends Sunday evening, when a potluck supper was enjoyed in the garden. Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. W. H. Spiller and son Walton of Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Seimberger and daughters, Barbara and LaNore of Glendale.

♦ Mrs. J. V. Maule and two children of 67 W. Laurel ave. and Mrs. Roy Edwards and daughter Louise of 307 Mariposa ave. left Monday for a few days at Redondo Beach.

♦ Mrs. Charles Millard of 30 Windsor lane returned with her husband from Hawaii since the opening of hostilities. Lt. Herbert Kelly and wife of SYcamore pl. also were in the islands not so long ago. Mrs. Millard and Mrs. Kelly met for lunch Friday at the home of Mrs. S. J. Floyd, 430 N. Mt. Trail ave., to discuss phases of life in the islands. Lt. Kelly is somewhere in the South Seas attending to Uncle Sam's business.

♦ Mrs. Fannie Sea of 196 W. Montecito ave. was hostess to Eugene Poole, field representative of the Los Angeles Bible Institute, at lunch on Tuesday when Mr. Poole was calling on friends in Sierra Madre.

Warns Landlords

Landlords will not qualify for any future exemption of seasonal housing from rent control by keeping the housing vacant during the winter of 1944-45, according to David Barry Jr., OPA district rent director. Many complaints have reached the OPA that in some resort communities a substantial number of landlords have been seeking to evict tenants in order to keep the properties vacant during the winter months to qualify for exceptions applicable to resort housing rented only during the summer season.

'Irish Stew' Subject of Lecture at the Arts Guild Friday

"Irish Stew," a lecture on Ireland, is on the program of the Arts Guild Friday evening, September 1, at the Old Brick Oven. Mungo Park will supply the ingredients for the stew, while the Guild members and their friends will furnish whatever chowling is necessary. Mr. Park spent a goodly part of his life in Ireland and knows the Irish people very well.

John Diemer Named State Guard Lieut.

John E. Diemer of Sierra Madre has been appointed 2nd Lieutenant by Brigadier General Ray W. Hays, Adjutant General of the State Guard, and is assigned to Headquarters of the 4th Battalion 29th Regiment in Pasadena.

Lt. Diemer was formerly 1st Sgt. of Co. C, the Sierra Madre unit of the 4th Battalion. He has been active in the State Guard since May, 1941, and graduated from the State Guard Tactical Training school held in Los Angeles last March. He served as a cadet 2nd Lieutenant in the Long Beach Polytechnic ROTC.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Fannie Sea at 198 W. Montecito ave. on Tuesday, when four cousins from Long Beach, a sister, Mrs. Mosher of Los Angeles, and Mrs. James Brazell of Oklahoma City, gathered to spend the day before Mrs. Brazell's return home.

FOUND FISHING FINE

President R. C. Lewis of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, who spent his vacation packing back into the high Sierras out from Visalia, returned home Wednesday morning. Mr. Lewis reports a wonderful time with fine fishing and breath-taking scenery. Mrs. Lewis who has been spending her vacation with her daughter, Mrs. Llewellyn Bixby of Long Beach, returned also.

GREATEST THREAT TO FREEDOM COMES FROM WITHIN NATION

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

The most dangerous attacks upon individual freedom today, ironically and paradoxically, are emanating, not from Germany or Japan, but from bureaucratic groups within the United States and Great Britain—the two citadels of human liberty!

A military victory over the Axis is virtually certain, though it will cost us dearly before it is won. That threat to individual freedom—the Axis threat—we can smash by sheer weight of bombs, supremacy of arms and the indomitable courage of our fighting men.

But the battle for freedom will have been only half-won when Germany and Japan have been beaten into surrender. When our external enemies have been defeated, we will still face a desperate fight against our foes within—a fight against the creeping paralysis of a sordid, materialistic, power-seeking bureaucracy which, if it goes unchecked, will destroy individual freedom here just as surely as Hitler destroyed it in Nazi Germany.

The implacable enemy of individual freedom is power—excess of power, concentrated in a few hands. It is an evil in business and industry, just as it is an evil in government, except that history has demonstrated that the people will not long tolerate insolent power in the hands of business tycoons. Eventually, public opinion will stamp out business arrogance, or labor arrogance. But with government, the problem is far more dangerous, for the power of the State, if it is not quickly curbed, grows on power—and develops into despotism and dictatorship.

That is the grave problem which this nation, and Britain as well, must cope with, if human liberty, the hope of mankind, is to endure, for while we are confident that we will win the military decision over Hitler and Japan, there is no denial that the totalitarian virus has infected our own country.

Recently this writer had occasion to call attention to the fact that the executive department and the administrative bureaus and commissions in Washington have boldly usurped the law-making powers of Congress on such a broad scale that more than 50,000 bureaucratic orders and directives have been handed down in the past four years, all given the full force and effect of law.

In the Montgomery Ward plant

seizure case, which probably shocked the American people more than any other high-handed act of government in our generation, there was another object lesson of how bureaucratic arrogance can circumvent the law with the connivance of a plant Attorney General, willing to interpret the law to suit the purposes of the moment.

When a private business has no protection against unlawful search and seizure, no thoughtful citizen can doubt that we have drifted to the brink of the precipice. For if the non-war plant of Montgomery Ward & Company can be seized, under order of the President, simply because of a labor dispute in which the President sided with the union as against the company, then any business or farm or home in the nation can be taken over, if the President or some bureau or commission in Washington wills it.

A WISE HOUSEWIFE

It's a wise housewife who checks with the price panel of her war price and rationing board before buying or selling a used refrigerator, vacuum cleaner, washing machine or metal coil bed springs, says an OPA announcement. These used articles are under price ceilings whether sold by the individual householder or a dealer.

TRAFFIC BARGING

Foolhardy motorists include those who start from the curb into traffic without first being sure that the highway is clear of approaching vehicles.
